P R A E F A T I O.

Prodit tandem, quod ad tachygraphiae Romanae cognitionem maxime facit, Lexicon Tironianum, opus arduum et impeditum, diu multumque inter doctrinarum subsidia desideratum (§. 10. 82). Cujus quidem ratio quo melius perspiciatur, nonnulla praemonenda esse videntur, primum de fonte, ex quo potissimum hausi; deinde de difficultatibus, quae in construendo hoc opere superandae erant; denique de commodiore ejus usu.

Ut bonum aptumque sit Lexicon, tria inprimis requiruntur: verborum summa copia, ordo eorum accommodatus, et vera atque exacta interpretatio. Illam uberrimam nobis suppeditavit notarum Collectio a Grutero edita (§. 67 seq.); in his multa desideranda reliquit Vir doctus. Quandoquidem notae haud ita sunt digestae, ut a quaerentibus facile reperiri possint; neque ita digeri poterunt omni figurarum analisi destitutae. Ab hac igitur, tamquam fundamento superstruendi operis, mihi incipiendum esse, continuo intellexi, ex quo ad condendum Lexicon Tironianum me accinxi, multamque curam et operam in eam contuli. Quo factum est, ut, subtiliorem Tironianae scripturae notitiam assecutus, notarum explicationes nonnumquam invenirem veriores iis, quas Gruterus sua in Collectione vulgavit, magna ex parte miserrime corruptas.

Quam quidem subtiliorem notionem quum non haberet Gruterus, studiis altioribus et ingenio suo dignioribus ab ea sibi comparanda avocatus; quod vera notarum lectio saepius eum fugit, id ei, ut par est, vitio non verto: id vitio verto, quod explicationes earum utique ineptas, et verba notis adscripta, quae nihil omnino significant, cum ceteris edidit, ne ullis quidem annotationibus adpersis, quibus verior sententia perciperetur. Quis enim, quaeso, intelligat, et pro interpretamentis sibi venditari non indignetur, quae exempli causa notavi: Quindecim viri satisfaciendi, Septemviri aepulorum, Anticialis, Clematur, Panteupium, Gaunapum, Amitextum, Apostfragisma, Palachina, Hierohaerix, Scinobatra, Pitauritanus, Colobatra, Pantadium, Pentatheneum, Pentarici, Platocerus, Pethepus, Cerdopetephus, Scerbilita, Sifarum, Petrabulum, Petrestis, Chedagra, Iptericus, Honoradia, Memmatripus, Intestigo, Ecina, Botagra, Psicolutra, Praesterium, Apotesterium, Tyrticeum, Nyrticeum, innumeraque alia, quae piget taedetque prosequi omnia.

O Grutere, Grutere, adeone indotatam e manu paterna adoptivam filiam mittere te decebat? adeone sordidam et vitiis squalem exponere? Quae jam plus quam ducentos explevit misera annos, neque grata acceptaque ulli adhuc fuit, neque unquam fuisset, nisi pro facultatum mearum tenuitate ei dotem, si non dignam, at aliquam, dedissem. Ejus enim, quod profero, Lexici Tironiani possessores habebunt ei insertam etiam illam Collectionem, sed multo meliori forma dotatam: quippe in qua non solum notarum figuras ex literarum, quibus constant, serie disposui; sed in adscriptis etiam interpretationibus errores a negligentia et ignorantia tum librariorum, tum ipsorum Collectionis auctorum, profectos, quoad fieri potuit, correxi, haud quidem expuncta mendosa lectione, sed subjuncta tantummodo veriori interpretatione. Neque enim ego is sum, qui critica audacia novam veteri lectionem substituere, meamque opinionem aliis obtrudere velim, sed liberum, ut decet, suum cuique judicium relinquo.

Difficillimam esse notarum analysin, equidem compertum habeo, neque dubito fore plerosque, qui in mea figurarum interpretatione subinde haereant, eamque vix intelligant, nisi diversas literarum formas probe didicerint, atque in derivatis primitivas, in compositis partes, quibus constant, respexerint. Erunt, ut his utar exemplis, qui mirentur, me in eruendis characteribus notae  $\mathfrak{S}$  qua Consternit (p. 73) significatur, literas invenire CN, quum posterior figura speciem potius habeat  $\mathfrak{S}$  S. Sed derivata illa nota comparata cum primitiva  $\mathfrak{S}$  Sternit (p. 551), videbunt, hanc nequaquam admittere interpretationem, qua duo S, quae in verbo Sternit ne cogitari quidem possunt (§. 122. 172), in nota inesse statuatur. Mirabuntur fortasse iidem literarum formas, quas habet nota  Venit in mentem (599); sed mirari desinent, inspectis compositae hujus notae partibus, quae sunt nota  Venit (589), et nota  In mente (184). Accidit etiam, ut in notarum figuris conspiciatur litera, cui in verbo, quod nota significatur, nullus est locus; et vicissim, ut vel prima verbi litera a Tironiana nota prorsus absit. Sic literam H, quae in nota  apparet, quam Almon (158) interpretamur, in hoc nomine haud legimus. At vero legimus in nomine Haedus, cujus nota  non nisi literas ED comprehendit (p. 117). Scilicet ex diversa scribendi ratione id natum esse discrimen, nemo non intelligit. Quae quum praemoneo, id ago, ut ab incauta ad reprehendendum proclivitate censores avertam, omnes admonens lectores, in hoc scriptionis genere nondum satis versatos, a quolibet temerario abstineant iudicio.

Sunt vero notae, in quibus dissolvendis diu anceps et incertus haesitavi: sunt etiam aliae, in quarum ratione explicanda adhuc mihi ipsi diffido. Haud igitur sine causa primum hujus operis volumen, licet abhinc annos prope quinque typis jam excusum, sollicitus continui, cavique ne vulgaretur, altero nondum expolito. Etenim una opera, quantumvis gnava et pertinaci, non ita perfici potuisse difficillimum opus, ut ab omnibus erroribus immune esset, facile mihi persuasi, praesertim quum in hac palaeographiae parte peritiorem non habuissem, quem consulerem, ac ne ullum quidem reperissem, qui saltim legere Tironianas notas posset. Quotquot igitur errores hoc temporis intervallo animadverti, eos neutiquam dissimulatos in altera cum primis Lexici parte, emendare studui, haud veritus, ne offenderentur eruditi detectis

Aut humana parum cavit natura.* —

Quae autem ad generaliora in demonstranda analyseos difficultate pertinent, ea quidam hoc loco non praetermittenda esse videntur.

Alphabetum Tironianum quum exhiberem (§. 145), negavi literam Y, quippe Latio ignotam, in Tironianis notis deprehendi. Attamen, licet in vocabulis, quae origine sunt Latina, vix reperiantur, reperitur in peregrinis, civitate donatis. Quae quidem quum haud sint frequentia; mirum non est, me, primam notarum analysin suscipientem, non invenisse hanc literam. Jam vero ex notis

 Lyciae, Lycaonia, Tyrii, Tyrus capta,

Zelotypus (p. 216. 587. 409) eam restituens, facilius etiam demonstrabo, quo modo a ceteris, quae ei sunt adnexae, divulsa ejus figura  ex properante tachygraphorum calamo effluxerit. Capitalis enim forma Y, duabus partibus V et I constans, hanc illi, quasi caudam, adnecti patitur. Quam quidem formam quo citius uno calami ductu absolverent tachygraphi, caudam illam a suo loco paulum amoverant, eodem fere modo, quo ejus locum mutatum esse videmus in Germanorum . Proinde quae in capitalibus literis TV, ut fiat TY, est mutatio, eadem est in notis  et . Neque in levi tantum vel vana conjectura niti hujus literae interpretationem, sed certam eam esse ac manifestam; notarum, quas exhibui, analysis probat, nullo quidem modo processura, hac litera neglecta.

Singulare etiam studium operamque diu frustra posui in solvenda forma, qua exprimitur syllaba ur: quae quum in pluribus conspiceretur notis, harum tandem omnium similitudines comparatae viam ostenderunt satis aptam, qua ejus procederet analysis.

Sunt autem  Jactura (p. 196) Captura (202) Conjectura (90) Penuria (301) Pauper (301). Extrema omnium harum notarum pars est R litera, satis frequens in vocabulis, syllaba er terminatis; id quod notae docent  Ter (p. 584) Inter (189) Praeter (292) Propter (292). U vero praecedens adeo comparet distortum, ut speciem potius habeat literae S, ideoque vix dignoscatur, nisi ab iis, qui, literarum, Merovingicorum regum temporibus, et paulo post, usitatarum, haud ignari, illius formae meminerint, quae ex  caudato, negligentius picto , sensim emanavit. Qua quidem re perpensa, errorem deprehendi, in quem abreptus sum, notam explicans, qua Pauper notatur (p. 579), depravata apud Carpentierum (Tab. II) forma insuper impeditus, quo minus veram scriptionis rationem intelligerem.

De alio, quod ex linguarum confusione oritur, impedimento, necessarioque Graecae linguae subsidio in explicandis notis, superius (§. 192) dixi. Jam vero Lexicon aptiora suppeditat exempla in notis Ἀκτιον (p. 11) Ἐξήρης (135) Ἡπτήρης (161) Χαμαίsworthου (199) Μονόβιβλα (222) Μαμμόθρεπτος (229) Παλαισρίτης (267) Πίθηκος (272) aliisque, quibus vere Graeca significari nomina, nemo in dubium vocabit.

Quae quum de analyseos difficultate non nisi speciminis loco dixi, tantum abest, ut omnia protulerim dubia, ut multa etiam supersint a felicioribus olim explicanda. Atque ne desint exempla, in quibus studiosi possint iudicii acumen exercere, ablegatos eos velim ad notas, quae in Gruteriana Collectione (p. 81) cum particula Nihil compositae sunt; vel ad eas, quae ex verbo Prosum (p. 7) originem traxerunt, ceterasque, quarum characteres, ob brevitatis studium, ita sunt sensim deformati, ut vix discerni queant. Ejusmodi notas in partes, quibus constant, dissolvere, per ardua res est, quam nemo fere unquam perficiet, nisi cui contigerit, ut primam obscurorum characterum formam feliciter eruat.

 Quicumque (Lex. p. 309) Quaecumque (310) Quocumque (310) Cujuscumque, Cuicumque (65) Quemcumque (309) Quamcumque (310) Quacumque (305) Quibuscumque (310) Quibuscumque rebus (309) Utcumque (407) Quotiescumque (309).

Harum omnium prima pars facile adgnoscutur ex simplicibus notis

Quis (302) Quae (310) Quo (304) Cujus (65) Cui (64) Quem (302)

Quam (304) Qua (304) Quibus (309) Quibus rebus (308) Ut 389)

Quoties (309); qui vero fiat ut per adjectam tenuem illam lineam his addatur cunque, haud quisquam intelliget, nisi cum ea comparaverit notam Cum (52), in eandem tenuem lineam exeun-tem; cui, ut notetur Cumque, adjici potest punctum, syllabam

Que significans (409): id quod exemplo illustratur notarum

Quando Quandocunque (304). Ita etiam ex nota Quae, adjecto Cum, primum fit Quaecum (310). Ex hac vero nota deinde factam esse, mihi persuadeo, aliam Quaecum- que; denique properante admodum stilo, quam nunc videmus, notam Quaecunque. Ea vero characterum obscuritas aliam laboribus meis attulit difficultatem, ejusmodi notas, suo quamque loco, in Lexico disponendi. Nimirum, quo facilius reperiri pos-sent, ex reliquis, quibus adjectum Cunque olim constiterat, literis non nisi clariorem U respicere licuit.

Id enim inprimis mihi curae fuit in apparando Lexico Tiro-niano, ut faciliorem, quoad fieri posset, ejus usum redderem.
 Vix tamen aliquis commode libereque eo uti poterit, nisi literarum, quibus notae constant, cognitione instructus accesserit (§. 86 — 145), quippe ex illarum ordine hae sunt digestae, dige-rique alio modo minime poterant (§. 10. 82). Quapropter nec audiendi sunt, qui supersedere cupiunt opera hasce literas dis-cendi, haud dissimulantes, commodiorem se Lexici Tironiani usum exspectasse. Quis enim, quaeso, ut hoc utar exemplo, qui ab Hebraeis, ab Arabibus, a Graecis, cet. scripta intelligere labo-rat, Lexicis uti poterit, nisi literarum, quibus scripta sunt, cognitionem fuerit adeptus?

Quum autem literae Tironianae vel evidentes et perspicuae sint, vel obscurae et ambiguae (§. 258); in eorum gratiam, qui hoc scribendi genere non satis sunt imbuti, neque usu exercitati, eas tantum literas in assignando suo cuique notae loco respexi, quas magis esse perspicuas arbitratus sum, obscuriores dubiasque uncis includi curans. Exemplo sit utraque nota, et qua  Comtus (p. 74), et qua  Colit (75) significatur, quarum analysis ratione literarum CO nullam quidem habet dubitationem; in linea vero, quae ab O demissa sequitur, multi haesitabunt, neque injuria: in priori enim nota hanc lineam significare M, in posteriori eandem significare L, nonnisi ex ceteris vocabuli literis, quas nota habet, cogitur (§. 258). Eodem, quo dixi, instituto usus, ad explicandas notarum terminationes adhibui quidem literas minores; has autem, quoniam terminationes sunt inconstantes et mutabiles, in ordinanda notarum serie minime respexi. Quare ad maiores tantum literas oculos vertant, qui ex literarum ordine notas in hoc Lexico quaerere instituent. Repertis vero notis, minores etiam literas, praesertim eas, quae uncis sunt inclusae, diligenter circumspiciant, ut subtiliorem Tironianae scriptionis cognitionem sibi comparent, quibusque literis notae primitus sint conflatae intelligant, principales earum partes ab accessoriis probe distinguentes. Quum denique in omni scripturarum genere per literarum conjunctionem adeo nonnumquam similes fiant figurae, ut vix discerni queant (§. 169), idque in Tironianis etiam notis accidere soleat; ejus quoque rei rationem habendam esse duxi, saepiusque, ut in viam redire possint aberrantes, de similibus formis eos admonui. Qui igitur figuram  quaesiverit in EO (p. 124), ex literis, Italico caractere subscriptis, videbit atque intelliget, eandem formam etiam reperiri in IO, LO, et TO. Interdum, quoniam propter duarum literarum similitudinem dubium erat, quo potissimum loco notam reperiri quaerentes arbitrarentur, utroque eam loco inserui. Ceterum si qui forte erunt, qui ambiguas illas notarum literas, in quibus explicandis equidem jamdudum laborans sudavi, melius interpretentur; his ego libenter cedam, et palmam relinquam.

In prima hujus Lexici parte, quia notarum praesertim figuras explicare mihi propositum erat, ordo adhibitus hic est: Exponuntur primo loco ipsae notae Tironianae, ligno incisae. Sequitur earum analysis, majoribus minoribusque literis, ut supra dixi, scripta. Illis distinctos et apertos in notis characteres indicavi; his non solum obscuros et ambiguos (quos quidem uncinis circumdedi), sed etiam terminationes notarum mutabiles. Adjicitur denique explicatio ipsa, Tironianae orthographiae ratione vix habita, quippe quae ex analysi satis elucet. Interpretationi subinde apposita est, Italico caractere, vel melior lectio, vel usitatio terminatio. Integra vocabula, ut ab iis distinguerentur, quae merae sunt syllabae, majori littera initiali signavi. Numeris, qui singulis versibus subijuncti sunt, paginae significantur Collectionis Gruterianae; quibus si jungitur littera c, indicio est, librum Casselanum (§. 530) diversam a Gruteriana habere vel figuram, vel lectionem. Asteriscus ubi numeris accessit, eo indicatur, sive meliorem formam Gruterianae substitutam, sive, servata principali nota, terminationem solam mutatam esse. Signo §, numeris praeposito, notantur prioris voluminis paragraphi, in quibus uberius quaedam interpretatus sum.

Restare videtur, ut nonnihil etiam moneam de altera Lexici parte, quae quidem eadem vocabula complectitur, quibus in prima parte notae explicantur, sed secundum alphabeti ordinem ita digesta, ut omnium litterarum, quibus vocabula perscripta sunt, non paucarum, quibus notae constant, ratio habita sit. Paginae insuper laudantur, in quibus notarum etiam figurae, quas in hac parte omisi, facile reperiri possunt. Hunc vero apparatus neutiquam eo consilio cum eruditis communicavi, ut Tironianis scribere litteris discerent, quae inutilis foret opera; sed ut harum litterarum facilius redderetur studium. Etenim qui notas Tironianas legere intendit, atque in aliqua incertus haeret, quamvis eam intelligere sibi videatur, jam citius perspicere poterit, verumne viderit, an erraverit. Quin etiam, opportune oblatam in hac Lexici parte occasionem amplexus, quaedam vocabula uberius explicavi, lectionumque emendatarum causas attuli.

Quae igitur per annos prope nongentos (§. 55. 451 seq.) ignota erat vera Tironianis notis scribendi ratio, hanc ego exponere conatus, quaeque adhuc incomprehensa erat veterum notarum analysis, eam docere aggressus sum: atque ad difficillimae scripturae cognitionem, cujus aditus in tenebris jacens omnibus erat obstructus, viam ulterius progrediendi aperui et munivi, scopulos difficillimos perrumpens, atque impedimenta ubique obvia removens, adhibita in superandis eis incredibili opera, summa diligentia, et, paucis ut complectar, Germanica assiduitate atque industria. Quae si non temere de me sunt praedicata, ex his ego, atque ex his solis (§. 8), esse aliquo in numero eruditus videbor.

b) Licet martyris etiam nomen sit, hoc tamen loco prophetam intelligi, qui Hebraeis אֲבָקוּךְ est, series verborum docet.

c) Constantem neque in nominibus casuum, neque in verbis temporum, dispositionem reperias, siquidem auctores collectionis notas ex libris ita excerpserunt non numquam videntur, prout ipsis occurrerant (v. quae annotavi ad notas Ab absente, cet. Abrincatas, Gazophylacio, Herodiadis).

d) Profecto non erat, quod Vossius (de vitiiis serm. L. 7. Op. 2. 352) hoc nomen, recto casu ita terminatum defensurus, a Graeco Latinis repeteret. Graecum enim numquam fuit, sed Chaldaicum אֲבָא.

e) Quum literae A sinistrum tantum crus supersit; ita legendum esse cogitur (§. 94).

f) Quo ordine in Gruteriana collectione notae sint digestae (§ 70), hoc quidem loco optime videbis. Series notarum haec est (p. 182): Piscis, Pisciculus, Piscina, Esor, Esocina, Abdomen, Thynnus (Indomitus enim, quod a libro Casselano abest, post intercalatum esse videtur). Quodsi ratio quaeritur, cur inter piscium nomina sit Abdomen, nemo fere umquam eam reddere poterit, nisi Plinii locum (12. 15) legerit, ubi thynni abdomen commendat.

l) Nomen civitatis (Leusden Onomast. 6). Ita quidem legi potest nota. Sed altera lectio Abram eo magis praeferranda est, quo facilius ab hac nota derivari potest ea, quae in collectione proxime sequitur, Abraham, quod unum idemque nomen esse constat.

m) Abrincatae, hodie Avranches. Unde vero terminatio as sit, quae quartum casum denotat, videamus. Regum Francorum diplomata a notariis ex ore cancellarii primum notis Tironianis leviter excepta, deinde literis vulgaribus perscripta fuisse, superius (§. 358) dixi. Ex ejusmodi scheda illa nota fluxisse videtur. Pactum enim inter Gunthramnum et Childebertum, reges Francorum, atque Brunehildem reginam, quod primus vulgavit Gregorius Turonensis (L. 9. p. 440), inter alia habet „duas portiones „de — Pictavis, Abrincatas, cet.” diversis casibus barbaro Merovingicorum more ita junctis. Atqui hisce ipsis casibus eadem nomina in collectione nostra leguntur. Etenim pro Pictava est (p. 141) Pictavis, et pro Abrincatae (p. 142) Abrincatas: ex quo magna significatio fit, collectionis auctores non nisi ex hoc fonte has notas hausisse.

n) Licet aspiratio haud dubie insit in nota; Academiam tamen esse, oppidum Campaniae, hodie Bagni di Tritoli, ex eo colligo, quod plures Italiae civitates in collectione hanc sequuntur.

o) A nota abest aspiratio, neque eam admittit litera K pro ca (§. 117) in secunda nominis syllaba. Pars Graeciae hoc nomine appellata.

u) Rationem hujus lectionis vide §. 275.

x) Posterior notae pars ex nota Barba bene procedit. Prior, quum A solum sit, liberum cuique arbitrium facit cetera divinandi. Legamus itaque Aenobarbus sive Ahenobarbus, quod est Domitiae gentis cognomen. C enim, temere insertum, interpretem prodit origine Francum (Vid. Almon).

a) Ἀκινάκης Suidae est μυρὸν δορυ περσικόν et Hesychio idem, sive ξίφος. De recto hujus vocabuli casu vide Vossium (de vitiiis sermon. 1. 12).

h) Rivum esse prope Romam, satis notum est. Nota quidem H addit; sed eo haud contentus interpres insuper C adjecit, Chalmon scribens. Unde haud absurde colligitur, Francum eum fuisse.

i) Alopezia fortasse legendum. Adversari quidem videtur huic conjecturae, quod in collectione proxime sequitur Alpocatis, eadem notae figura notatum, mutata solum terminatione. z) Inter vestimenta legitur: quare Graecum ἀναβόλαιον esse conjicio. Isidorus (Orig. 19. 25) Anaboladium amictorium lineum faeminarum fuisse tradit.

a) Ita adscripsi, quia Anariacarum populum fuisse, Plinius (6. 16) tradit. Jam vero hac conjectura mihi non satisfaciente, aliam, immo meliorem, infra ad nomen Arariacus proposui.

b) Quum Gruteriana interpretatio elementis notae non adversaretur, haud ausus sum, aliam substituere. Attamen mirus est notae locus inter morborum nomina. Quare commodior lectio Anathymiasis videtur; cui etiam non obstant, quae praecedunt, verba Anathema et barbarum Anatematiarinata, quum absint a libro Cass. iisque collectio tum demum interpolata esse videatur, quum illius notae interpretatio jam corrupta esset. Nomen vero Anathymiasis collectionis auctores a Petronio (47) accepisse videntur.

c) Amfractus lecturo obstat terminatio rius. Enfractarius in collectione sequitur, quod quidem Effractarius esse potest. Illud vero ignotum.

i) Antigraphus Isidoro (1. 20) signum quoddam est in notis grammaticorum. Sed Ἀντιγραφῆς in aula imperatorum notariis praepositus fuit. Illud nomen hac nota intelligi magis placet, quam hoc.

k) Duae sunt notae, quarum utramque Anus interpretamur. Primam haud dubie quartae declinationis nomen, nempe vetulam, significare, ex derivatis Anilis, Aniculus (la), patet. Altera apud Gruterum Anis explicatur, additurque ejusdem vocabuli casus Anibus. declinationis nomen, id est, exitum intestini, intelligi; ut taceam, alterum vocabuli sensum priori nota jam occupatum esse. Illud igitur Anibus errorem esse malim notarii, nomen male declinantis.

q) Bagacum in itinerario Antonini, Bacaco Nerviorum in tabula Peutingeriana, hoc Galliae Belgicae oppidum appellatur. Gruterianae lectioni Basiacum omnino repugnat notae analysis. Nostram vero lectionem certam esse, Nervii nomen, quod praecedit, docet.

s) Hoc verbum ad imitationem sonus, quem mittunt oves, effictum esse, indeque ortam orthographiam in nota latentem, superius (§. 379) dixi. Aliud quidem etymon proposuit Scaliger (de caus. L. L. 28); sed Quintilianus (1. 5. f.) jam asseruerat, ab ὀνοματοποιία vocem profectam esse; et Varrone teste antiqui oves appellarunt Bela (Voss. etym. 80).

x) Identidem animadverti, Carpentierum notas neque legisse, neque legere potuisse, sed ex tritis diplomatum formulis tenorem hariolando saltim explicasse (§. 364). Cujus rei specimen dedit in hoc vocabulo: quod quum in eo chartae loco reperiret, ubi duarum commutationum mentio fit, Conscriptas legit, licet id verbum nudo C inverso, addita saltim terminatione, notetur, nostra vero nota BRtas exhibeat. Alterutrum hic fortasse legendum.

a) Si Basiolum nomen urbis esse haud sine ratione conieci; hac nota Basium, olim regum Francorum palatium, quod hodie Baisieu dicitur (Mabill. 4. 12), significari arbitror.

b) Non syllabam solum, sed etiam interjectionem esse, ex Plauto (Pseud. I. 8) novimus.

c) Ita liber Casselanus. Gruterus Beltica habet. Neque illud, neque hoc satis intelligo. Linea persecans abest a Gruteriana figura, et C resurgens formam potius induit literae L ut BLa, Baalìa, לְעַלְעִי לְיָיִן legi possit. Sequuntur notae Balac, et Balaam.

u) Inauditum hoc vocabulum si olim in usu fuerit, multo magis excusari debebat Incestuosus, quod apud Valerium Maximum expunxerunt viri docti.

y) Quoniam, quod apud Gruterum notae adscribitur, Catacussis omnino ignotum est vocabulum, hoc vero collectionis loco vasorum genera nominantur, Cataclistus legendum esse conjeci, quo vocabulo Apulejus de veste quidem utitur in arca reposita; sed hac nota significatur vas, cataclistica artificis opera constructum. Graecum vocabulum corruerunt sequioris aevi scriptores, quorum in numero est Gregorius Turonensis (glor. conf. 63) scribens: „Calicem non comminuit, quia cataclyza in ipso „ fuerant solidata.”

l) Pro Camea reposui, ut sit lecti genus a χαμῆ, appellatum. Hancce interpretationem poscere videtur series verborum (149): Suppellex, Caenaculum, Camea. Inter omnes enim constat, Caenacula fuisse aedium partes, in quibus maxime plebeji caenitabant. Unde Juvenalis (Satyr. X): Rarus venit in caenacula miles (Bulengar. de conviv. L. 1. C. 27). Chama vero, lectus humi stratus, quo etiam non nisi pauperiores utebantur, Hesychio est χαμῆνιον κλινίδιον πενιχρόν. Isidorus Camam, sine adspiratione, lectum brevem et circa terram interpretatur (Orig. XX. 11).

m) Haud scio, utrum Χαριστήριον legendum sit; an Charisticon, quod in pluribus Pandectarum libris scriptis (44. 20. 6) legitur; an vero Charistion pro Charistium sit. Charistia festa certe haud ignota sunt, et in collectione mox sequuntur Festus, et Festivus.

n) Chariontes, quod Gruterus habet, equidem ignoro. Quum vero Bacchus ejusque epitheta praecedant; Charites substitui, quae Bacchi filiae sunt ex Venere susceptae, ut quibusdam placet.

c) Gruterianum Clematur nemo profecto erit, qui intelligat. Paulo melior libri Cassel. lectio Clemater; sed duo C, quae in nota conspiciuntur, optimam demum suppeditarunt interpretationem κλιμακτήρ.

d) Haec nota vocabulo Cliothedrum apud Gruterum explicatur. Quum vero notae Cathedra forma eadem sit, quae hujus est, nisi quod illa a K, syllabam ca plerumque significante (§. 117), incipiat, haec a C, quia vocabulum ea notatum ab alia syllaba exorditur; facile inde colligo, ad derivatum nomen recurrendum esse, quod Graecis est κλινοῦσθῆδριον, et quamvis Latinum nomen nusquam reperiat, Clinocathedrium tamen notatum esse, ex terminatione notae apparet. Cujus generis haec sella fuerit, Chimentellius (in marmore Pisano de honore bisellii cap. 27) docet. Atque idem hoc nomen varie corruptum apud sequioris aevi scriptores (Cang.) legitur Cliothedrum, Cleothedrum, Cliophedrum, Clothedrum, Kliothedmus.

t) Apud Gruterum Concapsa legens ego fere adductus eram, ut intelligendum esse crederem vexatum illud vocabulum, quod ex legibus XII tabularum Festus (Gothofr. 466. v. 9) prodit, Concapu scribens, sive Concapes, ut Scaliger legit, sive Concape, ut Gothofredus (Fragm. XII. tab. T. 6). Quoniam autem huic notae eadem forma est, quae notae Capsa, nisi quod litera P literam C persecat, eoque L primitivae notae addit (§. 286); de alia conjectura vocabulum Captentula propositi, quod etiam a Capio descendit. - b) Ad tuendam nostram lectionem sufficit dilucidam esse notae terminationem, quamvis insolens sit verbum, a Forare derivatum. Sed silentio haud praetereundus est liber Cass. in quo punctum est pro terminatione, adscripta interpretatione Conforaneus, quod nomen in glossis Isidori explicatur Unius fori, et a Philoxeno σύντεχνος, i. e. idem opificium exercens. Nec Decemviri legibus scribendis legere ausim, quum extrema notae linea, sive K literam, sive an syllabam significet. Decemviri vero stlitibus judicandis noti sunt (l. 2. §. 29. de O. J.). Et licet obsoletam hanc scribendi rationem, quae in legibus XII tabularum reperitur, reprehendat Quintilianus (l. 4. p. 30); in lapidum tamen titulis saepius obvia est (Gruter. 350. 7. 407. 1. 465. 5). Sed aliam etiam lectionem, Decemviri sacris faciundis, nota admittit, quum posterior ejus pars nota Sacer (p. 344) ipsa sit.

d) Duo nomina, Donum et Munus, in unum coalescere potuisse, vix credo; neque alterum alterius glossam esse, in contextum perperam illatam, nota ipsa docet. Fortasse Plinium male quis intellexerit, asserentem (35. 14), Graecos Dora Munera vocasse, indeque inconcinnum nomen Dorummunus linxerit, ut igitur ita sit legendum.

f) Crucem mihi fixit haec vox, quam neque Pseudo-Isidorus (in gloss.) intellexit, curiosos ad collectionem notarum ablegans (§. 381); neque Cangius interpretari potuit. Drama, quod adscripsi, nullo modo congruit cum serie verborum Lancea, Framex, (Dramea), Spicum, Spiculum, cet. Ad Graecum δούρα fortasse recurrendum est. Certe Homerus (Od. α. Il. ω. μ.) pro hastis, seu hastilibus spiculis, hoc nomine utitur.

g) In verbo quidem nulla difficultas est, sed in ipsius notae forma, quae plures comprehendit characteres, quam ut simplex illud verbum ea significari possit. Namque vel Didoit, vel Diduit, vel fortasse etiam Didit habet. Didere quidem idem ac Dividere est; sed proxime sequuntur In — Per —, ut igitur verbum repetendum sit cum praepositionibus: quod fieri nequit, si primitivum est Didit. Haud enim praeterita Indidit, Perdidit notari, ex aliis notis constat, quibus Indit, Perdit significantur. Videntur igitur antiqui scripsisse Diduit pro Duit, Graecum διδώω fortasse respicientes.

h) Quum in optimis libris hoc nomen pluraliter efferatur, eodem etiam numero id adscripsit interpres. Attamen vereor ne in notae figura error sit, qui facile corrigatur, si lineam curvam, quae in litera A inest, acutam reddideris, quo facto M fiet, quod modo A erat.

Jam vero persuasum mihi est, Duracinum significari ea nota, quam in collectione praecedunt Pampinum, Dumosum, Granarium. Parum me movet scribendi ratio, qua G cum C commutatur. Saepenumero enim id fieri, supra (§. 311) dixi.

x) Aegre procedit hujus notae analysis. Difficillima enim lineae, ex G surgentis, interpretatio est. Modo T in ea latere, modo ex aspera pronuntiatione additum H (§. 311) esse literae-G suspicatus sum. Neutrum dubio caret.

y) Galenum, vel Calenum, vas vinarium dicunt glossae Isidori; sed inter metalla quum inseratur, praevalet lectio Galena. Mira tamen initialis K litera; quam nisi eo consilio, ut A simul exprimeretur (§. 117), adhibitam esse dixeris, alia ratione eam excusare vix poteris. Veniunt quidem in mentem Graeca καλάϊνος et καλλάλνος; sed melior videtur interpretatio Galena.

c) Genita Mana, ut meram conjecturam, addidi, quandoquidem Genimina vocabulum in classicis libris nequiquam quaeras. Quum vero haec nota, quia in libro Cass. haud reperitur, posterioribus demum temporibus inserta esse videatur; illud vocabulum auctoritas etiam recentiorum scriptorum tueri potest. Papias Genimina germina esse tradit: et Vulgata (Luc. 3. 7) Genimina viperarum habet.

Lentulus et Gnaeus Pompejus debebant legere, quae nomina omnibus nota. Quintilianus (1. 7) bene docet, Cneum eam literam in praenomine nota non accipere, qua sonet. Hisce perpensis incidit mihi suspicio, falsam etiam esse lectionem notae quae praecedit Genius, reponendumque Gnaeus. Certe Genius alia nota notatur.

e) Interpolatam hac nota esse seriem verborum, liber Cassel. arguit, in quo haud conspicitur. Gergesaei גֶּרְגֵּסָאִי (Gen. 15. 20), populus terrae Chananiticae. Gergesaeus filius Chanaan. Gergeseos siue diphthongo scribit Prudentius (Hamart. v. 413).

f) Glabinus in libro Cassel. est. Enumerantur quidem hoc loco nomina propria, sed istud ignotum, atque a Glabrione derivatum analogiae repugnat, secundum quam ab ejusdem terminationis nomine Scipio declinatur Scipionarius (Varr. 8. p. 145 ed. Bip.). Quare equidem conjicio, legendum esse Gabinus (Cic. pro l. Manil. 17. 19. Dom. 9. Caesar. Liv. cet.)

- e) Inter Romanorum nomina propria haec nota conspicitur. Manifestus error est in interpretatione apud Gruterum Achala; sed veri incertus, non nisi ex comparatione cum alia nota, qua Hejulat notatur, hanc interpretationem subjeci, licet haud sciam, an umquam auditum fuerit id nomen. Magis notum Helviae nomen est (Senec. consol. Cyriaci epigr. Illyr. 1. 2.): sed U rotundum in nota Helvius conspicitur.

y) Haud dubie pro Tribunus legendum Tribunitiae. Incertum vero est, cui ex Imperatoribus, qui Germanici cognomen acceperunt, hic honoris titulus tribuatur. (Conf. Grut. inscr. p. 153. sequ.). Hujus etiam notae lectione confirmatur Manutii sententia, secundo casu legenda esse correpta nomina Trib. Pot. saepius obvia, quae vel omnibus literis perscripta sunt in epistolis M. Antonini (Græv. Thesaur. 4. 1952), vel pluribus in inscriptionibus (Plin. 3. 20. Grut. 262. 6. 264. 2. Hard. ad Plin. 3. Sect. 24. Sunt tamen et exceptiones).

z) Germanicum nunquam fuisse Imperatorem κστ' ἐξοχλήν, Romana docet historia. Fuerunt tamen plures imperatores, sive belli gerendi duces, qui re prospera gesta illo honoris titulo a legionibus salutarentur: quem quibusdam etiam Augustus concessit, ac Blaeso postremum tribuit Tiberius (Tacit. Annal. 3. 74. et 1. 3).

e) Aepodixis quidem sanari potuit, Graecum vocabulum substituendo. Difficilius hoc. Succurrit tamen altera nominis Epideizeos explicatio (Reines. Inscr. 261. 262), qua ipsum etiam locum designat, sive auditorium, in quo artis specimina dederunt veteres. Quare In epideixi legere possis, mutata tamen notae analysi, ita ut linea figuram persecans haud sit terminatio is, sed  $\alpha$  litera (§. 142).

q) Suspecta mihi nota, cui hoc verbum in Collectione (p. 153) adscribitur. Minus enim in ea inest, quam in nota, a qua derivatur. Contra vero notis, quibus Eneclit, Eneaxus (p. 122) adscriptum est, illud verbum significari suspicor, licet ab E incipiant, cujus scribendi rationis causam a neglecta et confusa vocalium pronuntiatione originem traxisse mihi persuadeo. r) Latino Inultus barbarum Inoletus substitui. Quod ne quis temere a me factum putet, comparet cum hac nota aliam, qua Inultus vere notatur, quamque a primitivo Ultus descendere similis quum literae L, tum terminationis forma satis probat. Porro observet notarum Adultus, Adulta, Inultus, Inulta in Collectione seriem, quae quidem vocabula sono tantum, non vi ac potestate cohaerent. Quid enim re vera inter se commune habent Adultus et Inultus? quorum illud ab Adolescere proficiscitur. Accedit, quod Inoletus, a verbo Inolescere deductum, huic loco sit aptissimum, et, licet barbarum, olim tamen usurpatum, uti Cangius docet. Equidem suspicor, post Adultus non nisi syllabam In notatam fuisse, cui incautus librarius, lacunam expleturus, dein adscripserit ultus (§. 75). Quo demum facto, quae sequitur nota Ultrix ab aliis inserta fuerit.

f) Hoc etiam loco Plinium (4. 19) ante oculos habuisse videntur Collectionis auctores. Sicut enim ille inter Galliae Aquitanicae populos laudat Conсорannos, Basabocates, Latusates, Elusates, Osquidates montanos, Osquidates campestres; ita etiam Collectio habet Conсорannos, Vasates, Lacturates, Elusates, Obsedatos montanos, Obsedatos campestres. Jam quod adinet ad Lacturates, sive Lactorates commode nota explicatur ex ejus radice, quae est nota Lac, cuique additae sunt litera T et terminatio is. Lactura oppidum habes in Itinerario Antonini, et Lactoratium civitatem in Notitia Galliae. Hodie Leyctoure dicitur, sive Letoure in Arminiaco Galliae Aquitanicae; ubi etiam lapidum tituli sunt, in quibus civitatis Lactor. et Lactoraten. (Grut. 29. 14. et 30. 1) mentio fit. In tabulae Peutingerianae fragmentis (Vels. op. 727) populi leguntur Lactorates, quae quidem lectio optime convenit cum Tironiana hujus nominis scriptione; et Plinii Latusates ipsos esse Lactorates vix est quod dubitemus. Nonne igitur miremur audaciam Harduini, qui apud Plinium prorsus expungens Latusates substituit eis, omni etiam librorum scriptorum auctoritate destitutus, Tarusatium nomen. Utinam salva et intacta, quae in libris scriptis sunt, critici tuerentur, adnotasse contenti, si quid melius videant! Errata veterum auctorum, si quae sint, servari multo praestat, quam eorum scripta immutari.

g) Secunda notae litera G est, non C. Saepius commutatas esse hasce literas apud antiquos, (§. 311) vidimus. Ita etiam in glossis Cyrilli λάγυνος vocabulo Lacuna explicatur, quod omnino Laguna est, pro Lagena.

i) Neque Gruterianum Languena, neque, quod magis notum est Lagena, ex hac nota elici posse, quilibet literarum Tironianarum non omnino rudis perspiciet; licet series verborum, quoniam Amphora praecedit, lectionem Lagena efflagitare videatur. Lampadephoria quidem adscripsi; sed certi quid de hac nota, quae a libro Cass. abest, et a recentiori quodam ficta esse videtur, statuere non ausim. Error fortasse in ipsa notae figura est, in qua si litera P transmutatur in N, Lagena legere licet. Ex reliquis literis obscura illa, quae O esse videtur, aequae G esse potest.

y) Hodie Livorno. Sequitur enim in Collectione Ligurus. Longe differt notae forma ab illis, quibus Liburna et Liburnica navis notatur. Recte quidem. Haud enim ab Italiae oppido, ut Zosimi fert opinio, naves id nomen traxerunt, sed ab Illyrico populo (Steph. Byzant. in Λιβυρνοῖ, et Appian. de bell. Illyr.)

a) Inter luminum genera quum legerem Lignithis, ut primam nominis syllabam servarem, reposui quidem Lignythiis, suspicatus, medio aevo a λιγνός, Flamma, barbarum hoc verbum confictum esse. Quoniam autem ne apud infimae quidem aetatis scriptores reperitur; amplio rem etiam Gruterianae lectionis emendationem necessariam esse arbitror, legendumque Lychnitis, quod quidem herbae genus est, sed ea de causa cum praecedenti nota Lucerna conjunctum, quod Plinius (25. 10) folia ejus ad lumina in lucernis apta esse tradit. Est et Lychnites, marmoris genus, ita appellatum, quoniam ad lucernarum lumina in cuniculis caedebatur (Plin. 36. 5); attamen praevallet lectio Lychnitis. Quod restat, si quis Lychnuchus legere maluerit, alia notae analysis adhibeatur necesse est, statuendumque solas literas LH notae figura comprehendendi.

b) Ne mireris, me pro eo, quod apud Gruterum est Licola legere Ligula, quamvis alia adsit nota, cui Lingula adscribitur. Diverso enim sensu haec vocabula a Collectionis auctoribus accepta esse videntur. Ligulam eis fuisse lorum, quo calcei ligantur, series verborum docet. Lingula vero a Lingit ductum esse, ex utriusque notae comparatione perspicuum est, ideoque forsitan cochleare significare hoc vocabulo voluere. Haud quidem ego doctorum virorum sententiae subscribere ausim, qui Martialem grammaticos perstrinxisse arbitrantur distichis (L. 14. E. 120).

Poeta enim ipse alibi (2. 29. et 8. 59) utroque utitur nomine, unde patet, eum nullum diversae scribendi rationis respectum habuisse. Charisius vero ex grammaticis fuit, qui Lingulam a Ligula distinguerent: cujus ego locum (ap. Gothofr. 1561) male sanum ita restituendum esse, nullus dubito: „Lingula cum” (dele non) „a „linguendo dicta est, in argento: in calceis vero Ligula” (dele n) „a ligando. Sed „usus Ligulam sine n frequentat:” videlicet ut eodem hoc vocabulo utranque rem et cochleare, et lorum, appellare liceat. Omnino necessariam esse hanc emendationem, eo magis mihi persuasum est, quod Charisius non id agebat, ut unum idemque verbum plures habere significationes doceret, sed ut sonu similia tantum distingueret. Quod quia in ceteris exemplis apud eundem auctorem animadvertimus, certum est, eum primo loco Lingula et inferius Ligula scripsisse, nequaquam bis Lingula.

c) Inter lintheamina ignoto huic vocabulo locus est. Haud scio, an sit Levitonarium, id est vestis quaedam, qua monachi Aegyptii utebantur. Etenim B, in nota conspicuum, pro V positum sit. Certe Isidorus (19. 22) Libitonarium pro Levitonarium scribit; et in Graecam etiam linguam pravam hanc scribendi rationem irrepsisse, testis est Suidas, qui Λεβητωνάρια habet.

d) Omnino restituenda est Gruteriana lectio Linamentum. Neque enim Lintheamentum intelligitur, neque, quod ei substitutum vides, Lintheamen placet, quum hoc nomen aliam notam occupet. Sed Gruteriana notae figura corrigenda est ex libro Cass. quod equidem (p. 211) feci, vera etiam interpretatione adscripta.

h) Haec Gruteri lectio servari nequit, nisi notae analysi ita facta ut ego eam adscripsi. Sed secundum nominis casum haud significari, punctum additum arguit. Recto igitur casu Lyncis dictum esse pro Lynx, statuendum; vel, mutata notae analysi, legendum Lyncx, siquidem transversa illa linea, quam interpres syllabam is putavit, etiam X esse potest.

i) Gruterus Lita habet. Lyta conjeci, quod nomen in praefatione ad Digesta (Constitut. Omnem reipublicae §. 5) legitur. Sequitur in Collectione Litura, quod fortasse etiam a λύω deduxerint, ut sit quasi solutio literarum. Quod enim solvitur, deletur. Verius tamen etymon esse videtur supinum verbi Lino.

k) Nihil refert, Maceries legas, an Maceriae: utriusque eadem vis est. Illud Prudentius, hoc Isidorus habet. Maceria singulariter in optimis libris scribitur. Apud Suetonium etiam videant, quibus contigerit libros scriptos inspicere, num (Ner. 33) Materia scriptum, quod ego Maceria mallet. Certe a saeculo nono ad duodecimum tanta saepe literarum c et t est similitudo, ut vix discerni queant.

l) Dubitationis causa est in terminationis loco, quem in nominum priorum notis raro infra esse videmus. Quum vero exceptiones sint in notis Britomarus, Petronius, Pontidius; etiam hac nota Macrinus, nomen viri significari eo magis conicere licet, quod haud semel id reperitur in lapidibus insculptum (Gruter. 720. 4. et 515. 1).

r) Marsupiarus nullo modo intelligitur, unde Manciparius hoc loco legendum esse, conjectit Cangius (verbo Manciparius): qui, si Tironianarum literarum peritus fuisset, vanam hanc conjecturam illico abjecisset. Audacem vero esse eam, quam proposui, fateor, quum ex Marsupio fieri Marsupiarus nisi ex me nemo adhuc audierit. Sed notae figura docet, MarSupiaRrius legi posse, eamque lectionem series verborum suadet, quae quidem haec est: „Plagiarius, Sutelae, Marsupiarus, Strophæ, Chaldaeus, Magus, Mathematicus, Psyllus.” Qui omnes ex genere sunt praestigiatorum: quin etiam Sutelae dolosae sunt machinationes. Atqui in his Marsupiarium eundem esse conjeci, qui nobis Beutel-Schneider, Gallis Coupeur de bourse, Tertulliano Manticularius est. Riserit fortasse aliquis protervum interpretem: sed etymologis et criticis quidlibet audendi semper fuit aequa potestas. Conjecturae conjecturam qui addere voluerit, legat Mascarpionarius. Qui enim propter Mascarpionem ingemuit apud Petronium (134) Encolpius, amissam fascinationibus virilitatem deplorat: quare pace doctissimorum virorum, qui hunc Petronii locum emendare conati sunt, nihil mutandum esse censeo. A Mas et Carpere, idem quod Minuere, Deprimere, scurriliter compositum et fictum esse hoc nomen videtur, aequè ac a verbo Capere nomen Capio descendit, et compositum Usucapio. Mascarpionarius igitur inter praestigiatores dictus sit is qui virilitatem alicui adimit fascinationibus.

u) Peregrinum id nomen quum mihi ignotum esset, Mesizabel (Neh. 5. 4. et 10. 21) quidem legi posse conjeci; sed nota, quae huic proxima est, et ex ea derivata esse videtur, scrupulum injicit (vid. not. seq.). Quare ne Maharbal (Liv. 21. 12) quidem legere ausim.

Istum vero ad notarum Collectionem, in qua Mimos Monopticus sequitur, tantummodo respexisse verisimile est (§. 381). Certe fallitur Arevalus, qui ex aliis lexicis addit: Monopticus, unico casu. Monoptotus enim legere debebat, ut cum hac interpretatione vocabulum congrueret. Monodicus ex notae forma vix elicitur.

u) Duae quidem sunt notae, quibus haec vocabulum significetur; sed neutrius lectio certa est. Namque prior, cui apud Gruterum Myrticeum adscribitur, ideo nobis suspecta videtur, quia a radice Myrta longius abest, et Myrothecium etiam legi potest; cujus quidem lectionis alias haud contemnendas rationes infra (v. Nyrticum) videbis. 2) Insulae quidem nomen est; sed hic Ναυμάχος intelligi, ex puncti loco colligo. Quodsi haec conjectura haud placet, Navarchus lege. Certe enim Naumarcus, quod Cruterus habet corruptum est vocabulum.

a) Neque hoc intellexit auctor glossarum, quae Isidori nomine inscriptae sunt. Nullam enim addit interpretationem. Nequidquam Graevius aliam lectionem obtrudere conatur ei, qui solam notarum Collectionem haud dubie respexit (§. 381).

c) Quum inter Attagna et Tomaculum insertam viderem hanc notam; conjeci Nena, quo medii aevi scriptores potum appellarunt (Carpent. gloss.), legendum esse. Jam vero persuasum habeo, lectionem Nenia, sive Naenia, haud mutandam esse. Trimalchio enim apud Petronium (47), contemnens fercula vilia et rustica, hoc nomine utitur.

f) Licet ne in glossariis quidem reperiatur, tamen intelligere mihi videor hoc nomen. Sicut enim medio aevo Sororiger uxoris frater dictus est (Cang.), ita etiam Neptiger uxoris nepos fuerit.

b) Ita apud Gruterum legitur, et sequitur Obsedatus campester. Haud dubie iidem populi sunt, qui Plinio (4. 19) Osquidates campestris et montani dicuntur, ubi tamen libri scripti, Colbertinus et regius Oscidates habent. Quas vero in Gallia regiones habitaverint, diversae sunt virorum doctorum conjecturae, ex quibus praevalere videtur D'Anvillii (Notit. Gall. 510) opinio. Ad Tironianam hujus nominis scriptionem quod attinet, posterior utriusque notae pars Montani et Campester dilucida et manifesta est. Prior vero, quum O solum contineat, utramque lectionem, et Gruterianam et Plinianam perinde admittere videtur. Obscuritatem auget, quod nisi apud Plinium, et in notarum Collectione, nulla in aliis scriptis hujus nominis fit mentio. Subtiliori tamen notarum cognitione praeditus primam nominis syllabam vel Ob, vel Op explicabit, quandoquidem nullum a syllaba Os incipiens vocabulum in Tironianis notis cum hac literae O forma est compositum, quae, si sola conspicitur, vel Ob, vel Op significat, atque etiam in compositis Obses, Obsidium, Opus, Oppidum cet. satis elucet. Quare eo fere sum adductus, ut Oppidani campestris et montani legerem, praesertim quum terminatio harum notarum eundem locum occupet, quem in nota Oppidum, et altera earum pars Tironiano more (§. 186) succedat in locum literae P. Certum tamen quid de prima notae parte constituere non ausim; et si quis, ne a Plinii Oscidates longius recedat, Oscidates legere maluerit, eodem redibit. Namque qui ab omnibus bonis auctoribus Osci appellantur, similiter Opsci olim dicti sunt. Id vero in Collectione memoratu dignum videtur, nomen Campester singulariter, et Montani pluraliter notatum esse, quo ex discrimine mihi quidem verisimile fit, ex libro quodam, nobis haud cognito, haec nomina excerpta esse.

k) Nota, quae nonnisi OP (atque I, et fortasse etiam h) cum terminatione es complectitur, apud Gruterum explicatur Obplectes. Quod vocabulum quum me quidem prorsus lateret, corruptum esse arbitratus sum, aliudque quaesivi, quod in ejus locum substituerem. Sed conjectura assequi difficillimum fuit, quum id quod sequitur corruptius etiam sit, nullaque in verborum serie adminicula reperiantur. Legi quidem potest Opheltes, quod celebratum nomen viri est, in cujus memoriam Nemeos ludos institutos esse ferunt. Sed certum nihil constituo. Ὀπλητης etiam nota capit, si adspirationem in ea neglectam esse ponere licet. Quid multa? Incertior finis quam incepti.

o) Gruteriana notae interpretatio est Horcistipolis, ignotum mihi quidem vocabulum. Ὄρχησφόπος (Orchestropolos enim typographi error est) legi posse putavi, magisque in hanc sententiam adductus sum per Cangium, qui (v. Orciscopalaris) veterem librum notarum laudat, in quo Orchistopolis legatur.

c) Duae sunt notae unius ejusdemque formae, quarum alteri punctum praecedit, alteri punctum a tergo positum est. Illa bene apud Gruterum exponitur Paluster. Haec apud eundem Palinuster. o) Ex duabus notis, quibus idem vocabulum adscripsi, Gruterus alteram in adpendicem rejecit (199), quoniam a suo libro aberat: altera apud eundem vocabulo Pasca explicatur, atque in libro Cass. id nomen a recentiori quodam corrigitur Pascha; sed Pascua legendum esse contextus docet. Equidem hanc notam illa veriore esse arbitror.

d) Pentarici apud Gruterum legitur. Incertus fui, utrum Pentarchi, an Pentaeterici legerem. Vicit opinio haec, quum animadvertissem, in eadem columna sequi Palaestra, Palma, ludique quinquennales. Pentaeterici certaminis in lapidis etiam titulo mentio fit (Grut. 499. 6).

y) A Tingo non a Tango derivatum hoc verbum, licet inauditum, haud tamen damnandum. Etenim vix credo, alio uti potuisse Ciceronem ipsum, si lanam non tantum tingi, sed etiam pertingi jussisset. Aliud est a Tango, quod etiam Pertingere verbum vel ex optimorum auctorum libris expungerunt critici, substituentes Pertinere apud Caesarem (bell. civ. 3. 68), Ciceronem (nat. deor. 2. 9), Plinium (II. 37), Sallustium (Jug. 48), Livium (25. 24), aliosque. a) Pristinum in Gruteriana Collectione est; ad quod vocabulum in appendice adnotat „Alter liber exhibet Pestrinum, omnino commodius.” Lectoribus certe haud comoda est brevis haec explicatio: neque quid voluerit vir doctus assequor. Pistrinum enim alia nota, omnino diversa ab hac, notatur. Utramque lectionem adscripsi, neutram amplector, veram restituendam esse censens ex glossis Isidori, quas saepius Collectionem nostram secutas esse vidimus. Pestinuncium illae dicunt eum, qui pestem nuntiat. Atqui ex duabus notis Pestis et Nuntius nostra est efficta, praeceduntque in Collectione Pestis, Pestilens, Pestilentia, Pestiferum; sine ullo igitur dubio Pestinuntium legendum esse arbitror.

b) Quae apud Gruterum explicantur notae nominibus Pitaurum, Pitauritanus, has ego Petaurum, Petauristarius interpretor, inter Seboenobatica et Pertica insertas. Notarum figurae ex libro Cass. sunt emendatae.

e) Pania inter nomina propria apud Gruterum legitur refragantibus etiam notae literis. Phania, sive Phanias, viri nomen est, a quo Φανίς Ἰύρα in proverbii consuetudinem venisse, Eusthatius tradit.

f) Nisi in notis nusquam reperitur, quod sciam, hoc vocabulum, ex Φαρέτρα cum Ζώνιον compositum. Pharetra enim ex humeris pendebat (Herod. 7. 61), immo ex cingulo (Virg. Aen. I. 525). Literae PH, a quibus incipit nota, prohibent, quo minus Parazonium, et terminatio ium, quo minus Pharetratum legamus.

h) Utrum Graecum Lyrae synonymon, ex Φλοζ cum Κίθαρις compositum, an potius Psilocitharis, a Ψήλας, legendum sit, ex ea, quae sequitur, annotatione colligas.

i) Graecum nomen Latino adscripsi. Sed vereor, ne falsa sit apud Gruterum interpretatio. Quum enim literae Ph et Ps unam eandemque figuram Tironianam habeant; Psilocitharistes etiam legere licet. Quam quidem lectionem ut praeferam, Suetonius (Domit. 4) facit, ex cujus libro plura hausisse Collectionis auctores, saepenumero animadverti. Certe Chorocitharistes et Philocitharistes in Collectione sese excipiunt, aequae ac Suetonius Chorocitharistas et Psilocitharistas jungit.

k) Cum notae forma, ex libro Cass. emendata, satis convenit Gruteriana interpretatio. Antecedunt Phrygia, Asia: sequitur Phasalia, pro quo legendum esse Pharsaliae onjeci. Istud vero Philophasalia, quamvis Philopharsalia legas, inextricabile aenigma est. Quodsi notae terminatio integra servanda sit, equidem Philonica Pharsalia interpreter, ut error sit auctoris, qui Philonicum (virum) Pharsalium apud Plinium (8. 42) legens, id nomen populi compositum esse putaverit, regionemque finxerit Philonicam Pharsaliam. Sin errorem esse in notae terminatione a statuere liceat; ea in us transformata, commodior lectio Philonicus Pharsalius erit.

Gothofr. 231. 366) posui, quoniam antecedunt indumentorum nomina. Quodsi haec conjectura haud satisfacit; licet Pictacia legere, qui pluralis numerus est nominis Pictacium, cujus Gellius (16. 7) meminit.

statem ex appositis verbis eruere tentarunt. Auctorem enim, ut in pluribus, hoc etiam loco solam Collectionem notarum respexisse, nomen vero ipsum haud intellexisse, mihi persuasum est (§. 381). Inter mimos Podiarium dicit, quia in Collectione, praeter alias notas, antecedunt Schoenobatica, Petaurum, Petauristarius, ludorumquo genera paulo post sequuntur. Proxime ante Podiarium est nota Podium; unde Graevius illum esse ait, qui ad Podium fabulas agebat. At in theatris omnia ante Podium agebantur! Equidem Podarius legendum esse censeo, ut sit idem, qui Sonipes, pede scabillum sonans (Grat. Syneg. 45). Ita enim glossae veteres (Hofm. Lex. 3. 635: „Ποδοψόφοι, Podarii.”

z) Interpretationem notae quae a libro Cass. omnino abest, haud intelligens, Praeputium significari conjeci non obstante litera D, quod a Pudendis fortasse id nomen deduxerint Collectionis auctores. Sed videamus, possitne alio etiam modo explicari lectio Praepudium. In Collectione sese excipiunt Repudium, Praepudium, Tripudium: quare unius ejusdemque originis et cognatae significationis haec nomina esse colligere licet. Quamvis enim in diversas sententias dubii abeant etymologi; equidem a Graeco Πῆξ ea nomina originem traxisse arbitror. Certe verborum Repedare, Praepedire, Tripudiare vim ac potestatem qui intellexerit, noverit etiam nominum Repudium, Tripudium, Praepudium, significationem. Si enim Praepedire est Impedire; Praepudium idem quod Impedimentum erit. Quodsi quis, ne hac quidem explicatione contentus, maluerit, modicam ipsius notae emendationem fieri; ei, prona literae P figura reficta, legere licebit Propudium, quo vocabulo nauta utitur apud Petronium (99), moram Eumolpi culpans his verbis: Et moraris, Eumolpe, tamquam propudium (intelligo fieri) ignores. — Quae quidem verba quum haud satis explicata esse videantur a viris doctis; equidem quod sentio in medium proferam, grate accepturus, si quis meliora me docebit. Πόδες Græcis pes navis est, quo quasi it seu vehitur. Inde Latinis remi et vela quasi Pedes navales dicti sunt (Nonius Marcell. 5. 393. ap. Gothofr. p. 699. Macrobius. 6. 4): deinde, parte pro toto accepta, funes etiam, quibus vela reguntur, Pedes appellati (Plin. 2. 47. Virg. Aen. 5. 830). Graecis etiam Πόδα fuisse ipsum velum, auctor est Servius (ad illum Virg. loc.), qui, inde funem Latinis dictum esse Podam, tradit. Jam vero praepositio Pro in nomine Προποδίων sive Propodium eandem vim ac potestatem habet, quam in verbis Projicio, Proficiscor, Procello, Produco, Προποδίζω, cet. obtinet, et cum eadem praepositione nomen Propodon, pro Propodeon, Turpilius apud Isidorum (19. 4) habet, neque, cur hanc mutemus lectionem, satis est causae. Equidem non dubito, quod Virgilio est Pedem facere, idem Petronio esse Propodium fieri, utrumque scilicet actum significare, quo naves jam jam e portu educendae velis aptantur.

n) In gestis Trevirensium archiepiscoporum legi hoc verbum Cangius quidem animadvertit; mendosam vero lectionem esse suspicatus est, quum alibi id non reperiret.

Ex iis ea est, qua notatur: Quousque tandem abutere Catilina patientia nostra; ex iis: Unde de plano recte legi possit; ex iis et ea, quam nunc interpretor: Saepenumero patres conscripti. Quo rarius ejusmodi enuntiationes leguntur, eo certius conjicere licet, ex ipsis primis schedis eas esse excerptas. Atque hujus in primis notae origo egregie illustratur Plutarchi loco, quo, Catonis orationem a Cicero- nis notariis notis exceptam fuisse, tradit; quas etiam Tirōmianas fuisse, superius (§. 25) jam dictum est, hic autem confirmatur. Etenim in hac ipsa Catonis oratione periodus incipit: Saepenumero patres conscripti cet. quae quidem verba, ita conjuncta, praeterquam in Catonis oratione alibi etiam legi, nemo facile sibi persuadebit. Gesnerus quidem asserit, non nisi ablativis jungi syllabam pte; haud vero venit in mentem viro docto, Suumpte amicum legi apud Plautum (Mil. 2. 4. 58), Mepte fieri servum apud eundem (Menaechm. 5. 8. 10), Mihipte apud Festum (Gothofr. 121). Subactum ingenium legerem, si nomina hisce praemissa non illam potius lectionem poscerent.

Sed conjecturae parum favet utriusque notae forma, quae primitivi et derivati (§.275) speciem habet. x) Ex notae terminatione haec lectio cogitur. Sed per errorem positum esse um pro es, suspicor. Termes enim Hispaniae Tarraconensis oppidum erat, cujus cives Termestini retroposita terminatione notantur.

g) Notae, quam ex libro Cass. inserui, lectio haud dubia est, arguitque verbum Ternare, nobis quidem ignotum, sed probabiliter ab antiquis usurpatum. Namque compositum Conternare Hyginus (de limit. 191) habet.

z) Tissana sive Tisana lego, quo medii aevi scriptores pro Πτισάνη usi sunt. Isidorus (20. 3. f.): Succi dicti, quod sacco exprimantur, ut tissanae. Graecum etiam Τισάνη a) Notae figuram contuli cum ea, quae in libro Cass. est. Interpretationem falsam esse, ex ipsa nota patet, cujus literas nemo quisquam Sciroplectes legere poterit. Nomen Τέσσαρες, quod subjeci, sponte quidem procedit; sed mirum videtur hoc loco, quo Schoenobaticae artis et Petauristariorum mentio fit. Quodsi terminationem paululum immutare liceret, ut, quod nunc es est, fieret e; probanda foret lectio Tesserulae, ex nota Tessera eo facilius procedens, quod litera R, ceteras persequens, L quoque arguere videtur (§. 286). Sed etiam alia est conjectura, quae quidem maxime serie verborum confirmatur. Scilicet quum una eademque Tironiana figura sit I jacentis cum S conjuncti, et literarum TS conjunctarum (§. 171); Istriones etiam, pro Histriones, legere possis. Pariter enim negligitur adspiratio in nota Histria.

z) Marginalis nota esse videtur, fortasse ad Curtium (4. 4. 19) adscripta.

c) Pluralis numerus esse videtur nominis Vas. Licet enim, quod apud Gruterum sequitur, Vaticinium suadeat legere Vates; a libro tamen Cass. abest nomen Vaticinium post insertum, proximeque sequitur Vadatur.

(p. 589) quum absint a libro Casselano; haec nomina illis notis ibi significari suspicatus sum. Repugnat tamen litera V, a qua notae incipiunt: quare vide, utrum Verruta (Gell. 10. 25) sit legendum, an Falarica (Liv. 21. 8. et 34. 14) sive Phalarica (Virg. Aen. 9. 705): variat enim scribendi ratio.

e) Vera haec notae lectio est. Namque a nota Vas, addita litera T cum terminatione is, fit Vasatis, cujus populi nomen Ausonius (Parental. 24. 8) habet. Eorum civitas hodie Bazas dicitur, et vix dubito, quin Plinii Basabocates iidem Vasates sint.

f) Vassenus, quod inter nomina propria apud Gruterum legitur, quum nusquam reperirem, magis notum Vassidius (Grut. 1155. ?) in ejus locum substitui.

g) Canis sagax (Cang. verbo Canis). Idem videtur esse, qui Martiali (14. 300) Ver-tagus est.

x) Curator viarum (Varro de L. L. 4. 1), cui Varronis interpretationi Schellerus (Lex.) adscribit: Si lectio certa. Immo vero certam esse, haec nota docet, lucemque simul, quum in Collectione proxime sequatur Cestifer (Cistifer), affert glossis Isidori, in quibus legitur: Vioturus et statim Cestifer. Quae quidem verba ut mutarent et explicarent, operam luserunt critici, haud animadvertentes, non nisi ad notarum Collectionem respicere haec verba (§. 381).

y) In glossis Isidori etiam hoc nomine appellatur, qui Caesari (B. G. 1. 16. et 7. 35) est Vergobretus.

b) Quum ex litera U surgat X, equidem Voxare notatum esse pro Vocare, superius (s. 394) dixi. Videant alii, num antiquitatis vestigium in nota lateat, ut ab Axare (Fest. ap. Paul.) sit, idque a futuro verbi βάζω

c) Vindorix apud Gruterum legitur inter nomina propria. Quod quum prorsum ignotum mihi esset nomen; in ejus locum substitui Voltrex, in inscriptionibus (Gruter. 700. 2. 812. 2) saepius obvium.

d) Nihil mutavi, quamvis deficiente terminatione liceat Voluere legere. Volucrum autem re vera notatum esse, ex sequenti Involucrum patet. Unde illud a Volco derivari conji- cio. Eodem vocabulo Gregorius Turonensis (3. 15) utitur, involucrum intelligens, quo vestes aliaeque res involvuntur.
